Enthralling, historical Jaipur, Rajasthan's capital, is the gateway to India's most flamboyant state, Rajasthan. Renowned globally for its colored gems, the capital city of Rajasthan combines the allure of its ancient history with all the advantages of a metropolis. Since the color pink was symbolic of hospitality, Maharaja Ram Singh of Jaipur painted the entire city pink. The pink that colors the city makes for a marvelous spectacle to behold.

The morning is fresh as ever for you, and this is when you will have an excursion to Amer Fort. This palace is laid out over four layers and sits beside the shimmering Maota Lake.

Later visit the Maharaja's City Palace (the home of the erstwhile royal family) and UNESCO-listed Jantar Mantar space observatory.

Afterwards stop for picture at Hawa Mahal (the Palace of winds).

Evening with Local Family

After a brief refresh, spend evening with the local family. It's a great way to have a local experience in Jaipur. You will experience a great insight into the lifestyle of Indian family.

You will be part of a cooking class with the local family. Get a taste of true Indian hospitality thanks to this cooking lesson and meal in the home of a local family. You will learn few local dishes and how to prepare them with fresh ingredients.

End the experience by enjoying your meal, accompanied by lots of lively conversation, with the family. Return to your hotel and live a memorable night.

This Morning post appetizing breakfast, visit Victoria Memorial (Closed On Mondays & National holidays).

Built in the memory of Queen Victoria, Victoria Memorial is one of the best art museums in the country Boasting of a rich collections of paintings, lithographs, historical documents, etc., this building is one of the most important part of any Kolkata tour. It was designed by William Emerson, a famous architect of that period. The building, spread over an area of 64 acres of land, was opened for public in 1921.

Afterwards, visit the St. Paul's Cathedral Church.

St Paul's Cathedral is acknowledged as the first Episcopal Church of the eastern world. It is an Anglican cathedral of the Church of North India. Besides, being a religious site, the cathedral is also an architectural marvel.

Later, visit Mother Teresa House & Museum.

Considered as pilgrimage rather than a tourist place, the Mother House in Kolkata is a holy and very serene place that one can be at. The Mother House is the Head Quarter of the Missionaries of Charity that pulls thousands of visitors from all around the world.

Meals - Breakfast Included.

Day 8

Explore Kolkata

After breakfast start for a full day city tour of Kolkata.

Malik Ghat Flower Market (Largest flower market of Asia)

Located few km away from BDalhousie Square, Malik Ghat Flower Market is an exotic place to be. The visit to the flower market at Malik Ghat is charming and extremely refreshing. The colour, the liveliness, the aroma, and the total energy of the place all together is a wonderful way to begin your day with.

Later, visit the Dalhousie Square (Covering Raj Bhavan, St. John's church, High Court, GPO, Town Hall, Writer's Building and other important colonial buildings). Take a heritage walk through the busy streets of Kolkata musing over the ultimate colonial heritage of the city's past.

Afterwards, visit the Howrah Bridge. This magnificent example of engineering was built in 1824. What makes it unique is the fact that this bridge stands on pillars as tall as 270 feet and has been built without using nuts and bolts.

No visit to Kolkata will be complete without visiting the College Street area of Kolkata

Fist visit the Oldest Coffee House In Kolkata Dating Back To 1942.

With the cultural history behind it, the Indian Coffee House, Kolkata is a nostalgic hot spot in the city. It is one of the most iconic heritage eateries in Kolkata.

Over decades, Coffee House has been a favourite with writers, poets, artists and political leaders. Great artists such as Rabindranath Tagore, Satyajit Ray and Amartya Sen have been regular patrons.

In the same area explore the Asia's Largest Book Market.

It boasts of being the world's largest repository of second hand books.

The book stores here are mostly makeshift ones, in addition to quite a few good publishing houses and bookstores. If one cares to browse thoroughly, one may also get hold of the first editions of a couple of iconic writers. Apart from being famous for its collection of books, College Street is also known for being visited by the eminent literati of the city.
